

The Design Gallery ZEITLOS – BERLIN, founded in 1999, presents original Bauhaus furniture of renowned designers like Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, Walter Gropius, Marcel Breuer, Marianne Brandt and Wilhelm Wagenfeld on 500 square meters in the stilwerk Berlin.

The range encompasses museum exhibits and rare collectibles as well as restored classical items for the purpose of daily use.

For the expansion of the gallery's premises in 2011 authentic materials from the 30's such as Bakelite casings and spotlights from a booth were selected in order to create a tribute to the early Art Deco luxury liners and airships of that time.

ZEITLOS – BERLIN has since then displayed items from the 40s to the 70s and also arranged numerous in-house exhibitions regarding various design topics.
